Welcome Message

Dear Esteemed colleagues and friends,

Greetings

On behalf of the Indian Society of Perinatology and Reproductive Biology (ISOPARB)-Vijayawada Chapter, it is our immense pleasure to invite you to the 40th Annual National ISOPARB Conference, which will be held in the Land of Victory-Vijayawada, Andhra Pradesh, on the 14th, 15th and 16th of February, 2025.

The Theme of the conference: Perinatal Hypoxia-Prevention and Management

This prestigious event promises to be a gathering of leading professionals, researchers, and scholars in the fields of perinatology and reproductive biology. The conference will offer an excellent platform to facilitate knowledge exchange, foster collaborations and inspire progress in the field of Perinatology and Reproductive Biology.

You can enjoy the scenic beauty of the River Krishna, visit Holy Temple of Goddess Durga, Shop Handlooms and enjoy the South Indian Cuisine.

We look forward to your presence and active participation in making the 40th Annual National ISOPARB Conference a milestone event.

We embrace you all with warm wishes and greetings.

Long live ISOPARB.

VIJAYAWADA

Vijayawada (formerly Bezawada) is the second largest city in the Indian state of Andhra Pradesh and is a part of the state's Capital Region. It is the administrative headquarters of the NTR district. It comprises NTR and part of Krishna district. Vijayawada lies on the banks of Krishna river surrounded by the hills of Eastern Ghats, known as Indrakeeladri Hills. It geographically lies on the center spot of Andhra Pradesh. The city has been described as the commercial, political, cultural, Business and educational capital of Andhra Pradesh. It is the second largest city in Andhra Pradesh with a population of 17,23,000 in 2021, estimated population of 19,91,189 in the Vijayawada Metropolitan Area. It is one of the fastest growing urban areas in India and among the top 10 fastest growing cities in the world according to Oxford Economics report.

At a distance of 37 km from Guntur, 273 km from Hyderabad, Vijayawada, also known as Bezawada, is the second largest city in Andhra Pradesh State and also one of the top Places to visit in Andhra Pradesh. It is located on the banks of the Krishna River to the South, Budameru River on the north and the Indrakiladri Hills on the west. This is the largest railway junction of the South Central Railway, situated along the Chennai-Howrah and Chennai-Delhi rail route.

Legend says that Goddess Durga took rest in this sacred place after destroying a Rakshasa and since then the name 'Land of Victory' or Vijayawada came into existence. The discovery of Stone Age artifacts along the banks of River Krishna from Machilipatnam to Nagarjuna Sagar indicates that this area was inhabited long before. The Chalukyas once conquered this place and it was later part of Vengi Kindom, Eastern Gangas, Vijayanagaras and Reddy Dynasty. Finally it came under British Madras presidency.

The Krishna Pushkaram is a popular festival here that is held once in every twelve years. Apart from this the other common festivals celebrated here includes Diwali, Dussehra and Makara Sankranthi.

HOW TO REACH VIJAYAWADA

BY AIR: Vijayawada has connectivity via direct flight from Hyderabad, Bangalore, Chennai, New Delhi, Vishakapatnam and Tirupathi.

BY TRAIN: Vijayawada railway junction is the 2nd largest in Asia. It has connectivity from all the major cities in India.

BY ROAD: Pandit Nehru Bus station in Vijayawada is the 2nd largest Bus station in Asia. You can travel to Vijayawada by bus from all the major cities in South India.
